Scan this code or go to

BUY

If you plan to keep your car for five years or more, consider buying it with traditional financing. This means less money down and lower monthly payments over a longer period of time.

LEASE

Leasing allows for a smaller down payment. After the lease is up, you can buy the car or trade it in for a different one.

Also check out Honda Care® Vehicle Service Contracts. Honda Care is designed to protect you from costly repair bills after your factory warranty has expired. It's affordable and can be rolled into your monthly payments.

AUTO FINANCING 101

Need a car but can't pay cash?
Finance it. But first ...

BEFORE THE DEALERSHIP

- Figure out what you can afford – up front AND monthly.
- Understand the difference between buying and leasing.
- Know your credit score.
- Compare financing offers from a variety of lenders/lessors.

AT THE DEALERSHIP

- Stick to your price range.
- Hammer out your financing terms (the nuts and bolts of the deal).
- Get the full story on optional products (possibilities AND prices).
- Read the contract.

AFTER THE DEALERSHIP

- Make your payments on time.
- Look into any liens (Google it) on your vehicle.
- Check in with your lender/lessor if a problem arises.
- Know your obligations.
- Realize you can refinance at any time.

Returning to the Honda Civic Tour

BRANDON: It was a great time and I think everyone that came had a blast, so we thought it would be a fantastic way to finish up the tour for If Not Now, When?.

The Ever-evolving Sound

BRANDON: If you went back and listened closely to each of our albums, you'd find they all have a distinct personality – a quality that both individualizes and links them together. We started out as most bands do, by merely imitating our musical heroes, then we slowly found our collective voice and grew into the five-headed beast you see today.

The Show Goes On

BRANDON: Once when we were onstage at the Whisky in Hollywood, our old bass player knocked me out with the headstock of his bass. It split the bridge of my nose and I went out like a light. I woke up to very loud music and my accidental assailant nudging me in the ribs and telling me to get up. I wiped the blood off of my face and finished the song and the set. I have a scar on my nose and a fear of that end of the bass now, but it's almost a fond memory at this point.

LINKIN PARK

LIVING THINGS

MIKE: The new album came together painlessly, and I think that's a function of the band knowing what we wanted out of it.

Playing the Honda Civic Tour

CHESTER: One of the things we're most excited about is the energy of the new songs.

MIKE: We're definitely debuting some new material, but we're not sacrificing any of the fan favorites – the singles get the crowd going. The show's a little of everything.

Chester & Mike on the CBR250R

Honda CBR250R Motorcycle
customized by Linkin Park

MIKE: The motorcycle makes me want to ride motorcycles. I'd probably destroy it by just turning it on ...

CHESTER: Or yourself!

MIKE: It's a cool-looking thing – it looks like a superhero motorcycle!

Mike on the Civic

The 3D figure you see on the cover of LIVING THINGS is breaking apart and fracturing and there's fire inside of it. It was made from a 3D scan of Chester. We wanted to do something that related to that but tweaked to look cool on a car. It's all hand-painted.

MUTEMATH:

Something Glaringly Bright From New Orleans

PAUL: We really wanted to just cut to the chase on Odd Soul and compose music that would work for us onstage. Any idea that came close to depressing got nixed. We wanted to see how far we could go creating something glaringly bright.

The idea of this record is loosely based on our upbringing. We wanted to address the stories we've gathered in what is an admittedly odd culture. It gave us a chance to be much more up front about ourselves.

Life on the Road

MIKE: I'm kind of an explorer/tourist; I like to go out and check out what the cities are about. We don't get that long in each city – usually only a day or maybe even just an afternoon. I want to make the most of it and really see what's out there.
